

South Africa: Three Million Years of Art?
Reconsidering Ontologies, Technologies and Agents

DRAFT Programme

Thursday 27th October 2016

5:30pm Public Roundtable, Mill Lane Lecture Theatre, Cambridge

Speakers will be asked to present a single object from the BM Exhibition for 5 minutes, exploring ways in which it highlights important aspects of the South African past.

7:00pm Reception at the Museum of Archaeology & Anthropology, Downing St, Cambridge

Friday 28th October 2016, McDonald Institute, University of Cambridge

9:00am Coffee

9:30am Session 1: What did art do in Early Human History?

11:00am Coffee Break

11:30am Session 2: What did art do over the last 2000 years?

1:00pm Lunch

2:00pm Session 3: What did art do in colonial South Africa?

3:30pm Afternoon Tea

4:00pm Session 4: What did art do under apartheid?

7:00pm Conference Dinner

Saturday 29th October 2016

7:00am Coach to Leave Cambridge for the British Museum

9:00am Early morning visit to the British Museum Exhibition

10:00am Coffee

10:30am Session 5: What does art do in public spaces?

12:30pm Lunch

2:00pm Session 6: What does art do in the archive?

3:30pm Afternoon Tea

4:00pm Session 7: What does art do in the New South Africa?

5:30pm End of Conference